What is a Modern Apprenticeship?

SVQ 3 Social Services
Children & Young People

Work, earn money and train to become a fully qualified Childcare Practitioner!

Modern apprenticeships are a great way to earn some money and get hands on experience whilst you work towards an industry recognised qualification.

A Modern Apprenticeship in Childcare is a combination of working in a Childcare setting, usually a nursery and studying at the same time. You go to work, you learn whilst you're at work and then you are assessed on what you've learnt.

You will be working towards the SVQ 3 Social Services, Children and Young People qualification. You are required to have this, or an HNC, to work within an early years setting. The award is SCQF Level 7 which is the same level as an Advanced Higher at School or an HNC at College.

Most people take around 12 months to complete the Modern Apprenticeship and after you've finished, you will become a fully qualified Early Years Practitioner.
